

ich enables me in a short way to ply with the Doctor's request, saying something about his votes proceedings when a member of gress; a trouble I am very sure ad not attempted to take before ther would I now, but out of po-ness perhaps to the Doctor.

As well then as I can remember, I have not his votes before me) were very few that he made it did not seem to me to be strange unprofitable, after thinking how could be so wrong headed in politics, when he was generally so clear on other subjects. It really me a mystery, until yesterday, when it struck me at once it must have arisen from this unfortunate bery committed, it seems, only in the Doctor's neighbourhood, of tang from him and his neighbours appellation of democrat, and as says making it synonymous with vill. This certainly put the Doctor, good natured as he is, out of emper, and we all know when we are out of temper we are far from being right, and when not right we el we have too much of the influce of his majesty about us, which urries us from one wrong to another, until something turns up to table us to see the dangerous in-ence we are under. This some-ing I trust has appeared, as he ems now disposed to view things ifferent, and we are thus brought think so near alike, that there ems nothing to differ any long-about; particularly as it reards this new sort of caucus we extly agree. (I believe.) That is, you approve of giving your right choosing who shall represent you the members of this new caucus, to have brought out the Doctor as their candidate, that you will of course tell them so by voting for im. If you do not approve of it, ut feel determined to preserve the right in your own hands, and there-y your honour, your respectability, and your consequence as freemen, on will of course show this determination on the day of election, by electing any one but their candidate, and of course, by voting for the only candidate that opposes him, who will, as he has before stated, endeavour to discharge the duties devoing on him with fidelity and honour, and who has the satisfaction of subscribing himself, faithfully, Your Friend,
JOHN C. WEEMS.

from the Norfolk Herald, Sep. 15.
Late and interesting intelligence from the Spanish Main

Capt. Kerr, of the British schi-Sector, has politely favoured us with a proof sheet from the office of the Trinidad Courant, dated the 29th August, which contains the following highly interesting extract —Capt. K. has also handed us a file of the Courant to the 26th August.
Trinidad, Aug. 29.

"On Friday, the 21st inst. anchored in this port, about ten miles to the southward, Adm. Brion, from Guayana, with the following squadron under his command: Victoria, Captain Cowie, flag ship.
Columbia, Captain Hill.
Spartana, Captain Ravelo.
Favourite, Captain Bernard.

And having had a sort of neutral communication with Admiral Harvey, proceeded early next morning for his destination.

A squadron, of what they term their subtle force, composed of gun boats and fleechers, with 700 men of debarment on board, commanded by Com. Diaz, and Gen. Bermudez, which had descended the river with the Admiral, and debouched by the Cano de Macareo, and rendezvoused at Point Icaes, were ordered to join to the westward.

The result of this expedition was received here yesterday by a canoe, and has been, that Guirua was attacked at 10 o'clock on Monday night, the 24th inst. and carried by assault, with very little loss to the assailants, but a very considerable one to the Spaniards, who fought with bravery until the Favourite having got close into the redoubt, and opened her fire from a 24 pounder on a pivot loaded with grape; they immediately fled into the interior with the greatest precipitation, leaving behind their arms, ammunition, and every thing, even to their segars. The force afloat has also been taken; it consists of 9 gun-boats, and some vessels with private property, chiefly cocoa, of which it seems, there is a large quantity in the town, and on the coast. The blockade being now raised, we hope to see very soon the happy effects of a free navigation, by the arrival of cattle and mules from Guyana and Guarapiche.

Of the casualties in this affair have not seen any detail; but report states generally, that were very trifling on the part of assailants; but on that of the assailed enormous, which, however, may be permitted to doubt.

P. S. Since the foregoing prepared for the press, we have ceived a circumstantial account the military and naval transactions which led to the surrender of Gu-irua by his majesty's ship Scamander, Capt. Elliott, who was sent there with a letter from the Governor, in Baltimore to the Editor, dated Sept. 20, 1818.

"As I perceive by the articles which have from time to time appeared in your paper, that the system of privateering which our interests have carried on for some time past, has been reprobated by only 70 boys, instead of 7000 men, I now communicate some of their proceedings for your information. It seems that the Spanish property having been swept from the ocean, their cupidity has been attracted by the valuable Portuguese vessels and cargoes which navigate between Portugal, the Brazils, and the East Indies. Blank commissions are procured from Artigas, who occupies the banks of the river Para, opposite Buenos Ayres, under colour of which, vessels, armed, equipped and owned in the United States, and more particularly in this city, attack all the Portuguese and Spanish vessels they fall in with, plunder them of the specie they find on board, and if the vessels have valuable cargoes, order some for St. Barts, where, it appears, an arrangement of mutual convenience has been made with the governors; others, for small ports in the West Indies, and some even for the ports of the United States. Two privateers lately arrived at this port, have carried on their depredations to a most ruinous extent.
One of them, called La Fortuna, formerly the Fourth of July, has captured from 8 to 12 Portuguese vessels, among which are the Ray-nades Anjos, from which she took $82,000—a large ship of 900 tons, called the Monte Alegre, loaded with a cargo valued at half a million of dollars; the brig Vasco d'Gama, and Don Joao Sexto, valued at 100,000 each, besides other vessels of less value. Another privateer, called La Irresistible, which left this place in January last, returned a few days ago, having pil-laged, destroyed and taken 29 sail of Portuguese vessels, among which were 3 Indiamen of great value.
This privateer is said to have bro't into this port upwards of $200,000 in specie.

"The Portuguese consul general has commenced sundry suits to endeavour to procure the restitution of some of this property. He is said to have attached a quantity of specie deposited in one of the banks, and to have libelled a large Portuguese ship and cargo, which lately entered this port as a prize to the Fortuna. He has moreover directed prosecutions to be undertaken against the reputed owners of the privateer in this city, to recover the value of four of the captures; and the judge of the district court has ordered them to give bail each to the amount of $580,000.

"The affair has assumed a serious complexion, and if the Consul is successful, as can scarcely be doubted, must, from the magnitude of the claim, be attended with almost certain ruin to the parties, and possibly to their bail, who, it is said, reliable to the full amount of whatever may be the recovery against the persons prosecuted; there being in this respect a difference between the admiralty law and the common law. The same persons have also been arrested upon a criminal charge of violating the act of congress in fitting out the privateer Fourth of July, and have been held to bail by order of the judge, to stand their trial in November next."

THE
MORNING CHRONICLE,
A NEW DAILY PAPER.
TO BE ESTABLISHED IN THE CITY OF BALTIMORE.

It is with unfeigned reluctance that the subscriber here leaves to solicit the attention of the Public to a New Daily Paper, which he proposes with all possible expedition to establish in Baltimore, to be denominated THE MORNING CHRONICLE.

With regard to the political character of this publication, he avows any concealment —it will be decidedly of the Federal cast.
That federalism, which was known and practised in the day of Washington—that federalism, for which Hamilton wrote, fought, and for which Montgomery fell—this federalism, which, with a large and compensative view, embraces all countries, so far as they augment the prosperity and the grandeur of their country, and which turns an eye of the most transcendental dissonance on the little, despicable, mean personal bickerings for office—that federalism, which would raise, ennoble, and aggrandize the character of our dear and beloved country, and in opposition to that detestable, malicious federalism, whose only aim is to raise and to ag-grandize private families—that federalism, that exalts in the spectacle of our country's greatness; that delights to behold the stargazing banner glittering over every sea our country's glory, by no other test than those of the ocean—that federalism, that cheers the honest husbandman at his plough, the mechanic at his desk, and the grave to the sailor, on the subject of turning an apostate now, to lend himself to the measures of individual ambition, or to mistake his own welfare for the welfare of his country. These are the federal sentiments of the Editor, and such as he will be governed by until the hour of his disolution. He does not individual antagonize, he looks for support on his countrymen at large; if he fails in this appeal to their conscience, he is content to remain unnoticed and forgotten.

PAUL ALLEN,
Late Editor of the Federal Republican and Baltimore Telegraph.

TERMS.

THE MORNING CHRONICLE will be published daily, at eight dollars per ann. From the patronage already offered, and from the flattering prospects held out, it is expected the publication will be commenced the 1st of October next. Although the Editor intends it shall be a daily paper, it is not his wish nor his interest, to disregard the marine and mercantile departments; in these he will be assisted by persons well acquainted with the management of a commercial paper.

It is intended to issue from the Morning Chronicle office, as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers are obtained, a paper for the Country, to be published twice a week, at four dollars per annum, which will contain all the news-matter of the daily paper.

Every attention will be given to forward the paper to subscribers at a distance without delay.

* Letters addressed to the Editor, No.
50 North Frederick street, will be attended

BALTIMORE HOSPITAL, 24th Aug. 31, 1818.

The board of visitors have much pleasure in announcing to the public, that within the last eighteen months, a large and elegant addition has been made to this valuable institution, in the erection of the East wing of the building. This wing is 32 feet in length, and 20 in width, with an extensive Southern protection at its extremity, and is divided between an and rear, and is admirably calculated for the accommodation of every class of patients. Of this number are several large and airy wards, intended particularly for the reception of seamen, and well adapted to their various diseases. These different rooms and wards will be warmed by stoves, and by heated air thro' out them, from furnaces constructed on a safe and improved plan. Arrangements will also soon be made, for fitting the apartments in the entire building with gas.

The unwearied exertions of Drs. C. McKenzie and Smyth, the attending Physicians of the Hospital, in their attention to the construction of the building, and their care of the sick, have given a character to this Institution, which is now in vogue to none in the United States. The cost of erecting six wards, a most noble establishment has been erected—a thing without parallel in this country. It is well known, that a half a century has been consumed in erig-ing the Hospitals of New-York and Philadelphia to their present size, and it is admitted by many gentlemen, who have visited the Institutions, that the Hospital here, is by far the most extensive, the best buildings being now 32 feet in length.

The daily increase of the sick in the Hospital, renders it absolutely necessary that the new wing should be soon shut, and every exertion is now making, to have it completed, before the cold weather shall set in.

The visitors at their late meeting, examined the Institution with much care, and the apartments of the sick in the private in-mary—those in the lunatic asylum, and the wards of the sick and disabled seamen in the Marine Hospital—and they assayed with confidence, that the sick and disabled, who very deservingly are well accommodated and carefully attended. They have seen their different meetings, the private patients, confidently; the wretched marine humanely taken care of; and the sailor, disabled by age, wounds and sickness, well provided with suitable medical assistance, and with every other comfort which his condition may require. Indeed the agreeable situation in which this very useful class of men are placed, does much credit, as well to the Director of the Marine Hospital as to the attending physicians, to whose immediate care they are entrusted. Every patient who the visitors can bestow is due to Mr. A. V.
Gatchell, the steward and a Mr. Aaron of the Hospital, for the neat and clean manner in which the House is uniformly kept, and for their care and attention to the administration of the internal economy of the establishment.

Before they conclude it is account of the Hospital, the visitors would invite the attention of their fellow citizens throughout the United States to the ANATOMICAL CABINET OF MAX PEREZ, ANATOMIST, BY THE ART, which certainly far surpasses any thing of the kind ever exhibited in this country; and will afford to those who curiously may lean the to see how admirably and wonderfully they are made? This is more especially to the medical student, a fund of useful information.

The Hospital is under the care of the following medical gentlemen:
Dr. COLIN MACKENZIE, Attending Surgeon.
JAMES SMYTH, do.
Dr. HORACE GATES, Jameson Attending Surgeon.
Dr. GEORGE BROWN
JOHN COLLETER
JOHN CAMPBELL, WHITE
SOLOMON CRICKHEAD
PETER CHAPMAN
ASHTON ALEXANDER
JOHN OWEN
WILLIAM DONALDSON
